

Bryant House
South side of Belfast Rd.
east of Duncan Hill Rd.
Not accessible
ca. 1915

This simple but moderately large dwelling was a tenant house to the Preston Hartman farm (q.v.) It is typical of the style of houses built during the first decades of the 20th century in rural areas and, since it is listed on the 1918 tax record of William S. Hammond (but not in preceding assessments), it was probably erected shortly before that time.

The Bryant House is a two storey frame house, three bays in length, its principal facade to the northwest, hereinafter called north. A two-storey wing, one long bay in length, extends south behind its west end. A one-storey shed-roofed porch shelters its east side, the southerly bay being enclosed as a pantry. Two storeys of porches, with a hipped roof, extend across the west end. Exterior walls are covered with German siding and the foundation is of stone. The gabled roof extends equally beyond all walls. A single-flue brick chimney rises internally at the west gable; chimneys at other gables have been removed. A small portico shelters the principal entrance, in the middle bay of the north front. Windows are 2/2 in narrow beaded frames, flanked with louvred blinds. Two dormers, each with 2/2 sash, are in the northerly roof slope.

The interior of this ca. 1915 house was not examined.
